Delaware (Ontario, Canada) – As the NASCAR Pinty's visited a new track this weekend, Alex Labbé earns his second win as he celebrates in Victory Lane.

The 24-year-old from St. Albert, Quebec, ran the fourth-best time in qualifications but had to make repairs to the Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion. Starting from the end of the tail, the No. 32 driver managed his way up to the top-3 before the half of the race.

“What a big run for our sponsors Can-Am/ Kappa/ Cyclops Gear,” said Alex Labbé. “I mean we started from the back and got up to third in a short matter of time. My guys did a really good job tonight, I took every single shot that my crew chief, Mario Gosselin, told me to go for. He decided to wave around for track position and it turned out to be a winning strategy.”

Labbé passed Alex Tagliani with 36 laps to go en route to victory lane for his second time in his career. His first win came for the first time at Autodrome Chaudière, his home track, on June 24, 2016.

Labbe's No. 32 Can-Am/Kappa/Cyclops Gear/Ford crossed the finish line 1,924 seconds ahead of Tagliani.

“Our strength came out of our pit stops,” explained Alex Labbé. “Our team’s newest members excelled and have beaten all teams on pit road. I am so thankful to my team from the car’s preparation to all the adjustments throughout the entire day, we brought the fastest car out here and we earned that win with hard work.”

The young protégé of Go FAS Racing is now standing second in the drivers’ standing as he will be defending his winner title at Chaudiere on Saturday, June 17, for the CRS Express 300.

The Fast Eddie/CHOKO 250 presented by Havoline will air on TSN on Saturday, June 10 at 3:30 p.m., and on RDS on Sunday, June 25, at 4:30 p.m.
