PRESS RELEASE
(For Immediate Release)

Date: July 8 2017
Event: Ecko Unlimited 75
Series: NASCAR Pinty's Series
Location: Mirabel, QC
Format: 75 laps
Team: Go FAS Racing

Montreal (Quebec, Canada) July 5, 2017 – Standing at the top of the points chart for the NASCAR Pinty's Series championship, Alex Labbé and the No. 32 Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion team for Go FAS Racing (GFR) are heading to ICAR Circuit to race the fourth events of their schedule on Saturday night.

The No. 32 team enter the weekend on top of their game facing the second road course race of the year. After collecting one top 5, two podium finishes and one visit to victory lane, Alex Labbé couldn't ask for a better way to kick off this season. Fortunately, the future could reserve great results to keep on leading the championship. "Last Year, I had been chasing the No. 27 for the entire race and things were going well to gain the lead with 4 laps to go, until the Yellow flag came out," remembers the young driver that had to settle with second.

The ICAR track located 20 minutes outside Montreal has been a successful place to Labbé. He set a new track record last season at 94,868 seconds (80,183 mph) during qualifying. Hopefully, Mario Gosselin, Crew Chief of the team, will have the crew working hard on the Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion to deliver a car that will live up to the expectation and will hold on to its reputation of being freaky fast.

Fans and drivers should anticipate a lot of action as the series will be trying out a new format. This weekend's race will be held at night on a shorter circuit including only half of the old plot. These changes should complicate the passing, which some drivers will hate and fans will love.

Schedule: Practice: 11:15 a.m.—12:15 p.m.; Qualifying: 3:30 p.m.; Autograph Session: 5:40—6:20 p.m.; Race: 7:00 p.m.

Telecast: TSN—July 15 at Noon ET; RDS—July 23 at 2 p.m.

Quote:

“This new format could be a real challenge. I anticipate quick and tight turns and aggressive drivers which should be fun to race. With a short schedule like ours, we need to focus on being consistent. I am going to be racing knowing I have the best crew out there and I will trust them with my eyes closed. The Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion holds the track record there, I think I have everything needed to win this race.”
