ALEX LABBE RACE ADVANCE: RIVERSIDE INTERNATIONAL SPEEDWAY

Montreal (Quebec, Canada) August 17, 2017 – Leading NASCAR Pinty's series championship with a gap of 23 points, Alex Labbé and No. 32 Can-Am/Kappa Ford for the Go FAS Racing (GFR) team stay focus onto their next race. As always, the team will make every effort to win the Bumper to Bumper 300 at the Riverside International Speedway on Saturday night.

On the eve of the 10th event, nothing has yet been gained, which is why the No. 32 team intends to continue to do what it does best, to accumulate constant and competitive performances. Needless to say, after 9 races, the Can-Am/Kappa team stands out for its perseverance to finish at the top-5 of each event.

Antigonish's track, a banked oval in Nova Scotia has had mixed results in the past for Alex Labbé. On his first appearance, he got away with a very convincing second place. While his second visit in 2016 had him on a different experience as a broken part had completely destroyed the power steering of his car. This unforeseen event had ruined a good day which had started well when passing very close to the pole position in qualifying. Certainly, Alex Labbé knows how to make his way in front of the field and he will soon do so on Saturday night to win the honors of the night.

The event promises a lot of action and some unforgivable maneuvers since an accident has quickly happened and is very often difficult to avoid on this track. Fans should anticipate a good show.

Schedule: Practice: 12:30 a.m.—1:30 p.m.; Qualifying: 3:00 p.m.; Autograph Session: 5:25; Race: 8:00 p.m.

Telecast: TSN - Sunday, Aug. 27, 1:30 p.m. ET; RDS2 - Fri., Sept. 15, 7:30 p.m. ET

Quote

"I like going to Riverside, it's a fast track that comes close to the short racks like Bristol. The Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion was very fast last year and I think I have a good knowledge of the track to perform well. I do not take anything for granted, but I have confidence in my team. Throughout the season, we found a good momentum that could be really helpful again this weekend."
