(For Immediate Release)

Event: Lucas Oil 250
Series: NASCAR Pinty's Series
Location: St-Eustache, QC
Format: 250 laps
Team: Go FAS Racing

A VICTORY SIGNED BY THE UNSTOPPABLE ALEX LABBÉ

Montreal (Quebec, Canada) September 10, 2017 – Alex Labbé, driver of the No. 32 Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion for Go FAS Racing (GFR) outshines the field at Autodrome St-Eustache to defend his lead in the NASCAR Pinty's drivers' standing. He claims the win after leading 168 laps under a green flag to bring in his fifth win of the season.

The Can-Am/Kappa team preponderated practice sessions with the fastest lap time, but had to glut with the second-fastest time recorded in qualifying. Starting from the outside of the front line, Labbé didn't waste time to fall into the inside to later carry enough speed to make a pass on the current race leader.

The No. 32 Can-Am/Kappa Ford Fusion came on pit road for fuel with only 40 laps completed and never had a chance to return for fresh tires. Labbé took over the lead from the lap 82 until the checkered flag. "It's one of those group victory,” says Alex Labbé. “Today, I would have never been able to lap down everyone without a really fast and competitive Can-Am/Kappa Ford. I needed my team all race long to guide me through the field and help me manage my race. It’s been an awesome team effort and we proved that we are a winning team who deserve a championship title.”

Since Labbé clinched his fifth win of the year, he earned a 33 points lead over the second driver in the NASCAR Pinty’s drivers’ standing. He now only has to start the final race to earn the title, but the team is feeling more motivated than ever to compete for a sixth win to seal the season in perfect conditions.
